ONWARD BULLDOGS, ONWARD BULLDOGS,

AND WIN FOR OLD C. G.

As you turn these pages of this yearbook, I hope that it will bring to your mind many memories of our past year at school, and also open the doors of tomorrow. We are now standing on the threshold of accomplishment. Who can predict our impact on tomorrow's world?

This alone challenges us to set our goals high, grasp opportunity, give service and face life with hearts filled with courage and hope.

On these pages, you will find our life at C. G. H. S. in pictures; the four years of life upon which we now place our trust for the future.

LOOK OUT WORLD HERE WE COME.

Queen and Court Attendants

"SOME ENCHANTED EVENING"

"Some Enchanted Evening" was the theme of the Homecoming of 1965, held on October 1. Activities in preparation for the festivities began during the week and climaxed with the sophomore class receiving first place in the class float competition. Their theme was "Pirates Walk the Plank." The seniors merited second place with the theme "Help". After the game, the Homecoming court was announced to an anxious audience, by the Heralds, Patty Holmes and Jerry Miller. Reigning for "one enchanted evening" were King Don Clevenger and Queen Sherri Jameson. The Court was chosen in the following order: First Attendants, Kathy Wright and Gordon Kidenour; Second Attendants Sue Candler and Don Lentz; Third Attendants, Deb Dilsaver and Ken Carpenter; and Fourth Attendants, Patty Knott and Don Thornton. Little King and Queen were Bruce Hilty and Kelly Barto. They were attended by Dennis Smith and Robin Teegardin. Music was furnished by "The Cobras." Midnight drew nearer until one enchanted evening became memories.

"May I have this dance?"

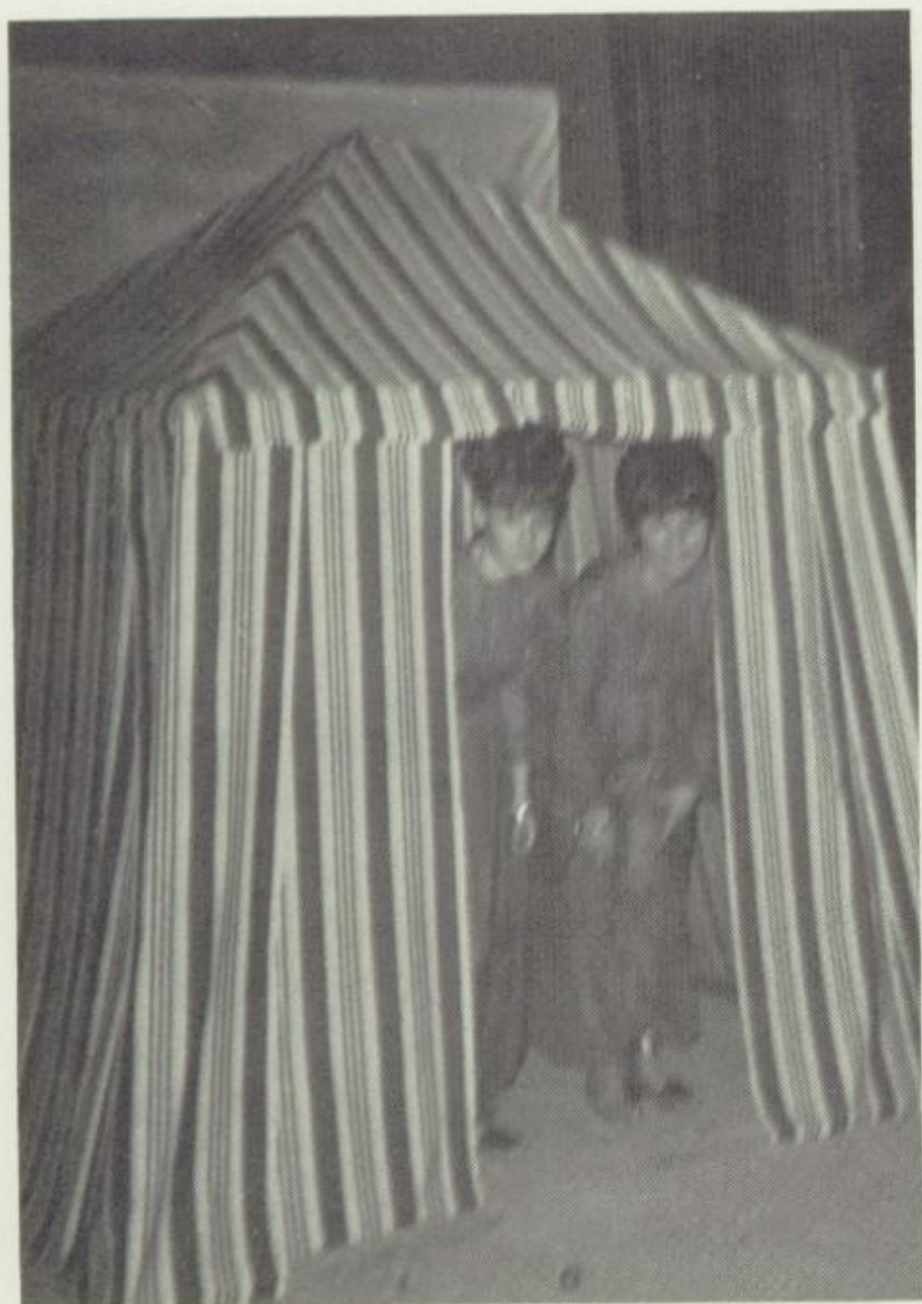

The gymnasium was decorated in gold, red and black. As we entered the land of Arabia, the fragrance of incense cast its spell over us. We dined by flickering candlelight and danced under a star-studded sky. The shieks and their harem added to the enchanting atmosphere of the desert scene, truly a night to be remembered.

Members of the Bulldog Press are taken from all four classes. The purpose of the newspaper is to aid students in developing their ability to report all phases of high school activities and in setting up the paper.

This year the Bulldog Press was selected to receive the Scholastic Roto, a pictorial supplement which concerns happenings of teenage interest all over the country.

The editorial staff attended a workshop at Bowling Green State University in October. Kris White was selected to attend the Summer Workshop at Athens.

Bulldog's on Defense.

Although a Bulldog has the ability to win, he needs moral support.

Through the efforts of the Cheerleaders leading the patrons the Bulldogs have been cheered to many victories. Cheerleaders are always present and active at all football and basketball games. They keep the crowds on their toes with cheers and victory songs. Besides the many hours spent in preparation for the sports season the cheerleaders financed the Bulldog Banner displayed on the football field and gymnasium. A Bulldog cheerleader is friendly and is proud to represent Columbus Grove.

This year the basketball team was composed of six seniors and four underclass men. Never again will these six seniors wear red and white uniforms. They must thrive on these memories of 1965 for the rest of their lives.

The graduating seniors should express their feelings about basketball to the underclassmen and should encourage them to participate in this game.

Each member of the team was able to play all positions. Every member of the team was important whether participating in the game or backing his fellow players from the bench.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL

The subjects taught in grammar school.. Are not the ones we pick... For we must learn to read and write... And do arithmetic... We have to study spelling and ... The way each word must sound... And we are made to understand... The world is really round... We memorize a lot of dates... And names and places too... From Bunker Hill to Tokyo... And all the oceans blue... While in between we come across... The principles of youth... Obedience and bravery... And loyalty and truth... And so we find ourselves prepared... To start in senior high... And to the land of childhood dreams... We say a brief good-by.
